Important Information About Your Commission Application

Data Privacy Notice

Minnesota State law requires that you be informed of the purpose and intended use of the information you are providing on this application.

The information being requested will be used to identify you as an applicant, enable us to contact you when additional information is required, send you notices, and assess your qualifications for appointment. This data is not legally required, but refusal to supply the information requested may affect the City Council’s ability to accurately evaluate your application.

Per Minnesota State Statute 13.601, subd. 3a, your name, address, length of residence, occupation, education, training, civic affiliations, qualifications, experience, and veteran status are public data and available to anyone who requests the information.

All other personal information is classified as private data and cannot be released to the public unless you give permission for the city to release it. Information related to student commissioners is also private data and will not be released.

If appointed to the City of New Brighton’s Equity Commission, your residential address will become public data per Minnesota State Statute 13.601, subd. 3b. If appointed, you will also be assigned a City of New Brighton email address which will be listed on a public roster so members of the public can contact you regarding work your commission is doing. Would you also like your personal phone number listed on this public roster?

No Yes. Please add my phone number to the public roster: _____

Release of Information

From time to time, the City is in need of individuals to fill vacancies in this and other commissions, committees, and task forces as they may occur. If you are not appointed to the Equity Commission at this time, can the City add your name to an eligibility list to be considered for future appointments that may arise over the next year?

No Yes. Please contact me about leadership opportunities that arise in the next year.
